TREASURER’S REPORT: Beth projected expenses till the end of the year. We need to get an estimate for front doors ASAP, since that was budgeted for and we need to spend the money before the end of the year. Will Lojack can give us an estimate for the door. We may need to put in a warrant article to spend our own money on the roof. John will dig through his notes and see who is available to give an estimate for a metal roof. If there is any leftover money, Beth can prepay our oil.

DIRECTOR’S REPORT: Barbara has 3 candidates who she will be interviewing for the library assistant position. This will be for approximately 17-20 hours per week. Amy will send Barbara the update to the personnel policy that discusses vacation time for part timers. New hire should be in place by the middle to end of January.

Judy says Barbara is up to speed on everything she needs to know. Judy is still willing to help Barbara with any questions she may have once she is on her own.

CONTINUING BUSINESS:

Credit card from Citizen’s Bank- In order to not get late fees on our oil purchases, we need to put it on the credit card. Our current credit limit is $2,000. Citizen’s Bank recommends that we get a $10,000 credit limit, but that each person with a card should have a $3000 limit. Beth recommends that someone on the board has a card as well as Barbara. The oil purchase can be charged to the board members card, without running up Barbara’s credit limit. After some discussion, we decided that Beth would hold the second credit card. John made a motion to change our credit card limit as outlined above and add Beth as a second cardholder, Amy seconds the motion, all in favor.

George Augusta painting- Historical society is willing to go ½ with us on the painting. We will each spend $800 for a total of $1600. We can work out later with the historical society who will display the painting when.
