Library News for March-April, 2018

Mud season is a New England tradition. Rather than looking at mud season as a messy interlude between winter and spring, think of it as a time of transition, when nature is getting ready for rebirth. Here at the Library, we are adding some new programs and transitioning some others.

PROGRAMS

Back by popular demand, living historian Sally Mummey returns to the Hampton Falls Free Library in the persona of Queen Victoria on Tuesday, March 20 at 6:30 p.m. Her presentation, in full 19th century costume, is entitled A Visit with Queen Victoria. With passion, charm and wit, Sally Mummey dispels the myths and fables that obscure Queen Victoria. The snow date for this program is Tuesday, March 27 at 6:30 p.m. The Library gratefully acknowledges NH Humanities for sponsoring this program.

The Friends of the Library have invited best-selling author Jessica Shattuck on Tuesday, April 10 at 6:30 p.m. Shattuck is the author of The Women in the Castle, an historical novel about three widows who are survivors of the German resistance during the Second World War.

CRAFT PROGRAMS FOR ADULTS

Carol Sanborn will teach Beginning Basket Weaving for adults on Friday, March 2 at 11:30 a.m. There will be a $5 per person materials fee for this program. A sample of the basket will be on display in the Library. Please sign up in advance as space is limited.

Carol Sanborn will also be teaching a Needle Felting Program for adults on Friday, March 30 at 10:30 a.m. There is a $5 materials fee for this program. A sample will be on display in the Library. Please call or stop in the Library to sign up.

COMING SOON–NEW MUSEUM PASSES

The Friends of the Library have very generously sponsored two additional museum passes for The Children’s Museum in Dover and the Wright Museum of World War II in Wolfeboro. The Children’s Museum pass offers reduced-price admission for up to four people per day. The Wright Museum, which is open seasonally from May 1 through October 31, offers free admission for two adults and four children. The Library currently offers passes to the Museum of Fine Arts, the Currier Museum, the American Independence Museum, the Peabody-Essex Museum, and Strawberry Banke.

COMING SOON–NEW BOOK GROUP

The Library is offering a new cookbook club. The Library will obtain multiple copies of a particular cookbook. Interested participants will select a recipe from the book, prepare the dish and come together for a potluck of good food, company and conversation. The first cookbook will be Ruth Reichl’s My Kitchen Year. Copies of the book will be available at the Library. The first meeting will be Saturday, March 24 at 12 Noon. Call or visit the Library to sign up.
TGIF – A NEW LOOK

For many years, the Library sponsored TGIF, at 3 p.m. on Fridays as a time to converse with your neighbors and share coffee and cookies. In order to refresh this program and generate additional interest, the program will now be a time for coffee, cookies and board games. The Library will set up card tables with games such as cribbage, chess, checkers, dominoes, Scrabble, Trivial Pursuit, Rummikub, puzzles, and Keva blocks. Please drop in and share cookies and conversation with your neighbors.

WHAT WE ARE READING

On Tuesday, March 27, the adult book discussion group will discuss The Women in the Castle in preparation for author Jessica Shattuck’s visit on April 10.

On Tuesday, April 24, we will discuss A Piece of the World by Christina Baker Kline. Andrew Wyeth’s painting Christina’s World is arguably one of the most famous paintings of the 20th century. Christina Baker Kline, author of Orphan Train, captures the life of Christina Olson, the woman in Wyeth’s painting in this work of historical fiction.

The book discussions meet at 7:00 p.m. New members are always welcome. Copies of the books are available at the Library.

A friend sent me this wonderful quote about libraries, “Ever since we had arrived in the United States, my classmates kept asking me about magic carpets. They don’t exist, I always said. I was wrong. Magic carpets do exist. But they are called library cards.” Firoozeh Duman, Laughing Without an Accent, 2008.

Be well,
